

Privacy Policy

Protecting your private information is our priority. This Statement of Privacy applies to ACES and governs data collection and usage. For this privacy policy, unless otherwise noted, all references to ACES are for the sole purpose of advertisement, information, education, and communication through the disbursement of forms. It is NOT for the purpose of practicing medicine or professional counseling. By using the ACES website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of Your Personal Information

We do not collect personally identifiable information from our users. We may gather personal or non-personal information in the future.

Information about your computer hardware or software may be automatically collected by ACES. This information can include your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times, and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the ACES website.

ACES encourages you to review the privacy statements of websites you choose to link to from ACES so that you can understand how those websites collect, use and share your information. ACES is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content on websites outside of ACES websites.

Security of your Personal Information

ACES secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. When personal information (such as a credit card number) is transmitted to other websites, it is protected using encryption, such as the Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) protocol.

Attendance Policy (Courses)

You must attend the entire workshop to receive CEs. You may not attend partial workshops on different days or dates to receive credit for CEs.